

Well, the name says it all. Who hasn't been screwed by Wall Street? Now you can relive that screwing and know that you are SOL with this cool Wall Street themed corkscrew. It will cost you just $25. Which you probably don't have thanks to these Wall Street fat-cats.

Feel free to curse and call them names as you uncork the bottle, pretending that you are sticking it in some banker's ear...Or other orifice.

Well, the name says it all. Who hasn't been screwed by Wall Street? Insert and twist. They deserve it.

Yeah right, you want you're money, you're security, you're shi* at the right place and all, so we slog our as*es to get you all of that .But what's it when we play the dicey card and get you all screwed up.

Here is the original:

Wall Street Corkscrew is a statement in itself!

Saca-rolha Wall Street

A ideia deste saca-rolha é de americanos inconformados com banqueiros, analistas, corretores e todos que trabalham em Wall Street e foram pivôs da última crise econômica. Depois de tudo, ainda saíram de bolsos cheios, com bônus e premiações. Já que "ferraram" com tudo o objetivo é, toda vez que enfiar o saca-rolha em uma garrafa de vinho, lembrar destes figurões e prometer que eles nunca mais farão isso. Bom, o intuito é até louvável, mas vou ser sincero, gostei mesmo foi do visual das plaquinhas de rua. Que tal uma versão mais brasileira como "São João c/ Av. Ipiranga"? O saca-rolha Wall Street custa 24,99 dólares. "Revoltadamente legais!"

CARA'S TREASURE

SCREWED BY WALL STREET CORKSCREW

"We've been screwed, fooled, sliced, diced and mutilated by the stock markets! Bankers, brokers, analysts, and CEO's led us down the garden path, and we were all drunk with greed...until it all collapsed! They tanked the world stock markets and your portfolio, retirement plan, pension fund, and kid's college money all tanked with it! Meanwhile, the Governments of the world bailed the banks out, and our greedy bankers lined their pockets with record bonuses!

Is that fair? Show the bankers that WE DONT ACCEPT IT! It is time to make a stand! Grab a bottle of wine and, every time you pop a cork, remember who got screwed - US - and never let it happen again!"

It's good for us. Yeah, and that's possible only after we get the wisdom pumped into our veins after a few sips from the 'elixir of vice', especially when it's corked open by this cool Wall Street themed corkscrew. It costs just $25. We can all here you mutter under your breath as you uncork the bottle, imagining it to be a banker with his butt-side up.
